

Celebrating Women in Photography Today

HUMAN

Tracey Paddison

Human is a documentation of Ben, a non-binary, trans masculine person who identifies with a male pronoun. Photographed over four years in Wales, UK. Ben has now completed his transition and is living a happier life. Tracey continues to document Ben telling his story through multiple narrative elements including audio, video and personal materials.

Born in 1967 in Cardiff, Wales. Tracey lives in a rural village in the South Wales Valleys in the UK. Working as a freelance photographer since 2014.

Tracey studied camera craft in Sydney at the Australian Centre of Photography in 2012 and Documentary Photography at Ffotogallery, Cardiff, Wales, in 2015.

Her documentary practice is concerned with concepts of identity, highlighting women's social issues, and Welsh politics.

She is an advisory board member of the women's photography collective PHRAME.

MORE INFO

Website: www.traceypaddisonphotography.com
Instagram: instagram.com/traceypaddisonphoto
Twitter: twitter.com/traceypaddison
Email: tracey@traceypaddisonphotography.com